ARGENTINE FINANCES.

It is stated that the Argentine Government is taking steps to commence legal proceedings against Mr. Wilson's new monthly, the Investor's Review for having ventured to say that the Argentine Republic will not be able to fulfill its engagements under the Moratorio compact and resume the complete service of the Public Debt in December 1893.

We have no hesitation in saying that Argentina will be unable to meet the full payment of her coupons in the remaining years of the 19th century, and we shall be happy to discuss the point with any cool-headed man who has at heart, as we have, the interests of this country. The sooner the truth be made clear on this point the better, as the position in December 1893 will be most painful if not prevented in time.

When the Moratorio was signed in January 1891 the Bank of England and Lord Rothschild endeavoured to impress on the people of England the following fictions as facts:

1st. That the crisis at Buenos Ayres was purely transitory.

2nd. That as soon as the Moratorio was signed the gold premium would fall to 50 per cent.

3rd. That no more issues of papermoney would be permitted, and that the Government would burn 15 millions of notes yearly.

4th. That the Finance Minister would lay by an annual surplus to form a fund for meeting the full payment of the debt-coupons from December 1893.

The motive for these daring and mendacious assertions was to give value to the Argentine securities held by Baring Brothers, and thus enable their guarantors to "unload" on a credulous public.

How far the promises and predictions of Rothschild and Lidderdale were at variance with the true state of affairs may be seen from the result, viz.:—

1st. The gold premium, instead of falling to 50 per cent, is now 240 per cent, or 30 per cent higher than when the Moratorio was signed.

2nd. The Government has not reduced the currency by 15 millions yearly, but increased it by fresh issues.

3rd. The Finance Minister has not been able to lay by any surplus, and his estimates for 1891 have proved 50 per cent too high. Instead of 29,000,000 gold dollars the revenue has produced only 19,200,000$.

The resources of the country are by no means sufficient to carry out the obligations of the Moratorio, and it is most desirable that either when Congress meets, in May, or when the new President takes office in October, some Argentine gentleman of experience be sent to London to make an equitable adjustment of the debt.

The current expenses of the Argentine Government (including service of the Pellegrini loan) are ascertained to be, as shewn in 1891, not less than $20,000,000 gold. The revenue is likely to increase 10 per cent yearly, the expenditure 5 per cent, and the account for the remaining years of the 19th century may be set down as follows:—

Year.	Revenue.	Expenditure.
1892.....	20,000,000	20,000,000
1893.....	22,000,000	21,000,000
1894.....	24,200,000	22,100,000
1895.....	26,600,000	23,200,000
1896.....	29,300,000	24,400,000
1897.....	32,200,000	25,600,000
1898.....	35,400,000	26,900,000
1899.....	38,900,000	28,200,000
1900.....	42,800,000	29,600,000

The above expenditure excludes altogether the service of the suspended loans and guarantees embraced by the Moratorio, so that in the year 1900 there will be, if all goes well, a surplus of 13,200,000 gold dollars. But it must be remembered that the present service of the suspended loans and guarantees is no less than $15,000,000 gold per annum.

To this must be added the service of the Moratorio coupons, say $4,500,000 per annum, which brings up the total to $19,500,000.

It is manifestly impossible for Argentina to set aside from Dec. 1893 an annual sum of $19,500,000 gold, since that would be 90 per cent of the total revenue. What we propose as the basis of a new arrangement with the bondholders is to set aside the estimated surplus as shewn above for each successor, viz.—

	$ gold
1893.....	1,000,000
1894.....	2,100,000
1895.....	3,400,000
1896.....	4,900,000
1897.....	6,600,000
1898.....	8,500,000
1899.....	10,700,000
1900.....	13,200,000

In this manner in 1900 we should be able to pay 70 per cent of the full amount of coupons and guarantees for the current year.

It may be asked, who can guarantee that the Argentine revenue will double itself in the next 8 years, as we suppose in the foregoing table? We can only reply that we consider it probable, and that we sincerely hope it may. But to suppose more than this is absurd, and hence we urge the necessity for arranging the debt on the above basis.

Another solution would be to prolong the existing Moratorio compact till the close of the century, provided the interest on all debts and guarantee be reduced one-half in the interim.

Englishmen know the great historical act of honesty done by the Argentine Republic in 1856, when this country sent Mr. Riestra to London to pay 26 years of arrears of coupons on the debt of Buenos Ayres. This ought to be sufficient proof that we are determined to pay as far as we can, and we may fairly expect Englishmen to meet us half-way in the manner proposed above.

CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

The Directors of this Company, as we anticipated, are determined to fight wickedly against the proposed amalgamation with the Rosario Company. Nevertheless the only hope for the shareholders of the former is to get rid of the Board that is now in office. If a Parliamentary Commission were sent out to Buenos Ayres to enquire into the land purchases of the Central Argentine some very amusing facts would be elicited.

Meantime the following specimen of polite letter-writing will hardly succeed in throwing dust in the eyes of the unfortunate shareholders.

Dear Sir,

Several letters have recently appeared in the Press, advocating amalgamation of the Central Argentine and Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railways; and one of the correspondents has stated his intention of calling a meeting of shareholders for the purpose of discussing it.

So far as any scheme has been suggested, the arrangement indicated does not appear to have been framed in the interests of the Stockholders of the Central Argentine Company. The Board, however, will not fail in their duty to carefully consider, and, at the proper time, advise their shareholders on any definite scheme that may be brought forward; but, in the meantime, they trust that their shareholders will reserve their judgment, on any and every proposal, and not pledge themselves to the support of any particular policy.

The estimate that £100,000 annually could be saved by amalgamation in the manner suggested is based on an entire misapprehension; and as the two companies have not kept their accounts on the same principle, comparisons based on the published accounts must be entirely illusory; while it is impossible to estimate the probable future earnings of two railways which have so recently constructed very important extensions, through districts differing in fertility and population.

A Memorandum of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Company's capital and annual charges for the years 1891 and 1892 having recently been published, I append, for convenience of comparison, an analagous statement with reference to the Central Argentine Company.

Yours faithfully,
J. Wilson Theobald,
Secretary.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

Jan. 31st.

"They were careful people who minded their own affairs, and were most of them hardly known or heard of beyond the sphere of their regular occupation."
—Statist, col. 2 page 126.

It is not given to all to know and understand the full import of these inspired words. They are addressed to us in allusion to a record of "Personal Wealth Statistics." We are told that the amount of personalty disposed of by wills during the last three years is about one hundred and fifty millions. More than one fifth is accounted for by the estates of 130 or 140 exceptionally rich people who yearly leave in personalty more than one hundred thousand pounds each. "We are able," says the Statist, "to form from these statistics an approximately correct idea as to who the people are who in this country acquire wealth to considerable amount, and how it has been acquired."

There seems year by year less inclination amongst the wealthy to invest in landed or real estate. Hence a great land-owner like the Duke of Cleveland equally with a retired blacksmith, one Nathaniel Clayton of Lincoln, leaves each of them nearly a million and a half in personalty. Men who have made money in business instead of investing in broad acres for the sake of a decaying social rank and 2½ per cent, put their savings into what are known as "trustee securities," giving 3½ to 4½ per cent. In the list of the righteous are an elect few numbering forty souls, who in their testamentary dispositions of personalty have left on an average £320,000 each. Figuring with the names of the Dukes of Cleveland and Somerset are those of Hyam the tailor, Pritchard the country banker, Green the brewer, Cliff the shipowner, Clayton the blacksmith, Baring the money-monger, Cockburn the wine merchant, Debenham the auctioneer and so on; clearly pointing to the fact that the secret of the wealth of this country is not in Cedulas or Colonial mines or American bonanza farms, but in the home trade, and that is the secret everywhere. Foreign trade and speculation carry off the surface washings and only stimulate the diggers below. But these are the vulgar mysteries of the religion of wealth. What I wish to call your attention to this day and bring home to your hearts, is the doctrine—the moral of our text. "They were careful people who minded their own affairs. "We are told by the Statist that the righteous live long in the land. We read that—"personalty to the amount of £13,750,000, or an average of £320,000 each, was left by forty persons, the mean of whose ages was over 83 years." The names I need not quote. The list begins with John Pritchard, aged 95, and ends with that of a comparative youth, H. Solomon (Lloyds) aged 76. "An eminent lawyer of former days" remarks the Statist "is reported to have said to his son." "Get money my boy. With it you get everything you want except an easy conscience, and it need not prevent you from having that." "It would almost seem as if he might have included length of days as amongst the good things that come to those who get money and take care of it. But to take care of money acquired hastily by speculation or otherwise, appears, so far as the record of wills is evidence, to have been hitherto extremely unusual. Amongst the 130 or 140 persons who in each of the past four years have left fortunes exceeding £100,000 each, in personalty, there is hardly to be found one in each year whose wealth appears to have been the result of speculative financial operations, which come into fashion in recurrent periods of inflation."

No, my friends; salvation is not found in the Bolsa; salvation does not await us at the gaming table; salvation is not in Cedulas, or in "spots," or in "futures," or in things present or in things to come, unless you put your money in "trustee securities" Mark the words of our text: "they were careful people who minded their own affairs, and were most of them hardly known or heard of beyond the sphere of their regular occupation." Yes; I would address you, my brother, you with the flashing feverish eyes, with the keen haggard intellectual countenance, you who are shortening your days for a "pull," risking your soul for a commission; and you, my brethren, who meddle in politics, who write books, who daze the mind with melody, corrupt the senses with colour and desecrate in marble the divine image; and for what?—for the bauble feme, for vanity's sake, for the best of intellectual indulgence. You are damned. You will never see ninety-five. In your last hour you will know neither personalty nor realty. Oh, my friends, when that dread moment arrives, think of the list of the righteous, the humble, the longlived, the wealthy, who have done nothing but invest in trustee securities. Think of Samuel James Brown (Senior of the Leeds Bank of William Williams Brown and Co.) £355,778! and not to raise in your hearts vain ambitions and sinful envyings, is there not written Samuel Mullens with only £5,549. And, oh my friends, of such is the exceeding bounty and mercy that surround us, let me, in urging you to amend your ways, quote from the inspired page of the Statist:—"James McHenry, formerly prominently in connection with some American railways, £1,457." Those are they "who minded their own affairs." These are the elect; these are the saved (and the saving) who invested in wholesome British securities; and keeping themselves warm and comfortable, distressing themselves neither in body nor in mind, lived to a ripe old age, everlasting exemplars of the truths of the one religion and one faith—in "Oof."

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The Tucumanos are in a tremendous state of excitement, owing to a local editor upholding the idea of a dictatorship as the best means of saving the country. That the idea of a dictatorship should be entertained is bad enough, but that such a course should be proposed by a Tucumano, a son of that sweet province where we find the bounties of nature linked with the bounties on sugar, where Argentine independence was proclaimed, that tops the climax. We understand that the incautious editor in question is shunned even by his warmest friends. We note that the locusts have swept down on the tobacco and sugar-cane plantations in the south of the province and are destroying everything.

Villaguay it still in the throes of a municipal crisis. The crisis is of long standing. It began some months ago with a plebiscite which dealt a fatal blow to an officially imposed corporation. There was then a lull, the Government yielding to the popular demands. A new corporation was put in, and things were working very smoothly when the popular corporation discovered that the Mayor or Intendente was pulling against them. The crisis now culminates with the deposition of the Mayor on the charge that he tampered with the register. In the meantime municipal matters are in a very neglected condition.

Our San Juan exchanges state that the new minister of Finance finds the province to be in a very critical situation from a financial standpoint. This is very singular, considering that the Free-Bank there only the other day declared a dividend of 12 per cent. We thought San Juan was on the highroad to everlasting boom.

The San Luis Radicals, through their local organ, are "going for" our venerable financial Cato with great bitterness. They set him down as an aggravating cause of the crisis.

Our La Plata exchanges are brimful of particulars of the American squadron, which is at present lying in that port. Half the population has already turned out to visit the ships, and trains and trams are consequently doing a roaring business.

A new industry has been started in Tucuman, namely the extraction of alcohol from the "tuna" or cactus which grows so luxuriantly in that sugary province. As the tuna grows wild, there is not much cost of labor.

Baron Hirsch's agent appears to be buying up Entre Rios. A Paraná exchange mentions two more estates picked up by the agent and chronicles the rumor that the Sociedad Agricultora has sold to the Baron an estate of 24 square leagues for $1,800,000.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

March 15th.

Mr. Casey has had an interview with the President of the Republic, and it is now reported that important amendments are to be made in the financial bills.

The Courts here have decided that the smuggling vessels caught off the Patagonian coast must be handed over to the Argentine authorities.

The Senate are beginning to raise some opposition to the Bank Bill. The question at present is in regard to the presidency of the Bank. The Opposition think that a 4 years' residence must be a "sine que non" qualification.

Government is at present drawing up a bill for military reform.

The military tribunal opens next week, when the officer who caused the death of a soldier through over-severe punishment will be tried.

Miss Maria Carolina Moreno, daughter of the Argentine Minister here, and two other young ladies were somewhat injured yesterday through the collision of their carriage with a tramcar.

EXECUTION OF A SOLDIER

Yesterday morning, in presence of all the regiments at present encamped in Palermo, the soldier Carrizo was shot. The particulars of the double-murder perpetrated by him are as follow:—On Saturday afternoon Carrizo, who was in a drunken condition, went up to Lieutenant Arguello, who immediately ordered him to his tent. Carrizo withdrew, as ordered, to his tent, and lay down with a view of sleeping off his drunken fit. In the meantime, Lieutenant Arguello called out the company to which Carrizo belonged and was putting them through some exercises, when suddenly a loud report was heard, and a cadet and a soldier of the company were observed to fall. The cadet—a young fellow of 19, named Ghizzazola, very much esteemed and liked—expired almost immediately in the arms of the Lieutenant. The soldier, named Pereyra, died a few minutes afterwards. The shot proceeded from the tent occupied by Carrizo, who pretended to be asleep when the officer rushed into the tent. A smoking rifle was lying beside the miscreant. The ball was evidently meant for Lieutenant Arguello, but Carrizo, being drunk, did not take steady aim. A council was immediately called, and Carrizo tried and condemned to death. The murderer displayed a revolting indifference, and stated that "he had had his wish." Carrizo was a native of San Juan, 22 years of age, tall and well-proportioned. He had been two years in the service and had not the reputation of being a good soldier. The sentence of the Court was communicated to President Pellegrini, who confirmed it; the execution taking place yesterday. A large crowd of people, moved by a morbid curiosity, witnessed the execution. The Volunteers were not present at the execution.

Padre Segui, Chaplain of the 12th of the Line, to which regiment Carrizo belonged, accompanied the condemned man, to whom he administered the last sacraments. The prisoner seemed very little moved. The surgeon of the regiment states that, up to the moment of execution, Carrizo's pulse was normal.

The execution was carried out by eight soldiers under Lieutenant Vallée. Carrizo was conveyed to the spot fixed for his execution. The Chaplain accompanied him and both prayed. The criminal was then made to kneel down and his sentence read out. His eyes were then bandaged. At this juncture, he felt that his last moment had arrived and, turning round, he asked his comrades to aim at his head. The executioners fired from a distance of a few paces, one bullet destroying the criminal's head. The corpse was subsequently conveyed to the Chacarita for Christian burial.

As we stated yesterday, several charitable ladies endeavored to obtain a reprieve for Carrizo, but the President was inexorable.

THE ZARATE MANŒUVRES.

In addition to the particulars we published yesterday, the following details will be read with interest: The sham fight began at 2 p.m. when the attacking forces began to advance over a very difficult ground; the enemy held a battery of 4 pieces on an elevation. The 10th and 11th battalions formed the attacking forces, while the 5th was held in reserve. Two batteries of artillery protected the advancing forces. The firing was brisk. At the moment when it was calculated that the position should be abandoned, the 2nd of the Line charged in brilliant style. In the meantime the 6th marched rapidly in a semi-circle to intercept the flight of the enemy. This was one of the prettiest sights of the day.

The President was on horseback, accompanied by General Pico and other staff-officers His Excellency expressed himself thoroughly satisfied with the condition of the troops. General Garmendia directed the manœuvres. All the leading families of Zarate as well as the sovereign people were present, and the greatest animation prevailed.

The manœuvres were brought to a close at 4.30 p.m. The soldiers did not appear fatigued. They marched into the town in splendid order. There were no stragglers. The town was decked out with flags, and the soldiers were enthusiastically cheered. The troops in Zarate are well inured to fatigue. They are never allowed to be idle.

The President was much pleased with the new torpedo-boat the Murature, which conveyed him and his party back to the Tigre. A new torpedo-boat on the same model, the Py, will be shortly brought out from England by Capt. Palmore.

THE PAPER INDUSTRY.

(From the New York Commercial Bulletin.)

The rapid growth of the paper industry in this country was set forth in a striking manner in an address which Mr. Waggoner, Secretary of the Chicago Paper Trade Club, prepared for delivery before the National Board of Trade this week. The statistics which Mr. Waggoner has prepared are full and interesting and are a hint of the detailed statements regarding the paper industry which will appear in the Federal census.

Mr. Waggoner gives the production of paper as follows:—

Year	Tons	Value, $
1850.....	70,000	20,000,000
1860.....	170,000	30,000,000
1870.....	320,000	50,000,000
1881.....	675,000	75,000,000
1891.....	1,500,000	175,000,000

In 40 years the production of pig-iron in the U. States has grown 10-fold, that of paper more than 20-fold.

The uses of paper in 1891 were as follows:—

	Tons
Printing.....	600,000
Wrapping.....	240,000
Letters.....	90,000
Miscellaneous...	570,000
Total.....	1,500,000

The number of mills in 1891 was a little over 1,100, of which 230 were pulp mills. The amount of capital invested in the paper industry in the United States has largely increased, owing to the use of much and costly machinery. It is believed, however, by those who have given the subject thought that not less than $175,000,000 is invested in the paper and pulp mill plants; that the mills give employment to above 75,000 persons, to whom wages amounting to $35,000,000 are annually paid. In concluding his paper, Mr. Waggoner, in order to show the importance of seeking special privileges for American paper through reciprocity arrangements, said:

"There are few paper mills in South America or Mexico; their supplies have heretofore been received mostly from France, Germany, Austria, and England, and speaking in behalf of the paper manufacturers in America; the Chicago Paper Trade Club asks that the facilities for the exportation of paper be increased under reciprocal regulations to be adopted with foreign States. The action of the State Department in recently securing the free admission of paper for printing, in British Guiana and other English dependencies, is exactly in line with what seems to us one of the needs of American manufactures."

OCEAN STEAMERS.

Mr. Editor,

It may perhaps interest intending passengers visiting Europe to read these lines. My reasons for writing are obvious, but if future passengers by the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company are differently treated, I shall be still more thankful to you for publishing this letter.

We arrived outside Buenos Ayres on Feb. 28th and were kept on board the R.M.S.S. La Plata until Friday March 4th. On that day we had to leave for Martin Garcia where we remained until Tuesday, March 8th. During all this time we neither heard or saw anything of the company's agent or any of his clerks; we were entirely without communication with the shore, not having any fresh provisions whatever. Several of us would have much preferred passing the whole of the time at Martin Garcia where we were far better treated, and this would have been done, but the company did not give us the option on our arrival or any time, as they ought to have done, as we were daily boarders, with this difference, that paying first-class daily we had to take what they gave us. The agent treated the authorities at Martin Garcia with the same curtesy apparently, for although he must have known that we would be "forwarded" on the Friday following, the superintendent was only informed thereof the evening before, not even then by the agent, and too late to have anything ready, and we were put in a house absolutely bare, nothing to sit on even, until our trunks came. Had it not been for the superintendent's kindness in giving us his brother officers' cold luncheon—divided among 12 of us—we would have been 24 hours without food. The passengers of the French steamer Portugal arrived 24 hours after us, but their rooms were already prepared at our arrival, as the authorities had received due and ample notification. The Portugal passengers left on Monday morning at 6. We were to do likwise on Tuesday morning; we were all ready at 6, but owing to a final blunder, quite a worthy finish of an unpardonable series of neglect, we were kept waiting till 11.30.

In pleasant contrast with the conduct of our invisible agent it is only fair to mention that the authorities on the island did all they could to make us comfortable, and gave us everything that could have been procured at such a notice. They were exceedingly attentive in their daily inquiries, and the passengers were unanimous in expressing words to that effect to them on the eve of our departure.

Since writing the above I notice the death of the unfortunate gentleman on board the Thames—whose wife and family have the full sympathy of their countrymen here. Verily it is a wonder that several deaths do not occur on each steamer of the R.M.S.P. Company. We remained 4 days in the port of Rio discharging cargo, dozens of boats alongside of us taking cargo, a very large number of steamers anchored all round us, all flying the yellow flag, some with sickness on board and day and night the full force of the wind from Rio! If the Company's steamers are still calling at Rio "en route" to here, why not discharge as usual? Is it not better to have 50 laborers on board for 24 hours than more alongside for 4 days? I could write much more of the Company's proceedings, but will do so in a letter to the Head Office in my name, as I took care to inform them on board. Although I am writing anonymously, I enclose my card for anyone's perusal.

In conclusion, I think the authorities, both at Martin Garcia and at Flores, would do well to quarantine their attendants in the same way as their protem. prisoners, as although the passengers are rightly kept together in batches, according to the date of their arrival, the former intermingle with all the arrivals.

Thanking you, Sir,
I beg to remain
Very respectfully yours
Mark Tapley.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE RIVER PLATE.

Mr Editor,

In your issue of to-day there appears a letter signed "H", in criticism of an article that appeared in your columns some days ago from the pen of the Rev. J. W. Fleming, of this city. I have not the remotest idea who "H" is, but he takes very great pains to demonstrate his own littleness of spirit, combined with either a deliberate and wilful distortion of the contents of Mr. Fleming's article, or else a gross deficiency in the very elementary stages of mental perception that would discredit the average schoolboy in an ordinary board school.

Mr. Fleming's article was avowedly written for your Scotch readers, and was declared to be a history of the "Presbyterian Church in the River Plate", and I do not think that any reader of even less than average intelligence will question that the author stuck to his text, and did not diverge from it either to right or left. There was not a single word of criticism, direct or indirect, about other churches beyond the simple record that they and the Scotch church work harmoniously together, which is surely a cause for mutual congratulation. One can only infer, therefore, that your correspondent drags "other churches" into print in this connection for the purpose of stirring up sectarian strife between churches hitherto working in cordial Christian unity without pretending to uniformity. Then again "H" appears to imagine that ministers of religion are made of different material from ordinary mortals, for he gives them credit for being able to live without means. He ignores the idea that a minister requires to eat and drink, and that as the material manna doesn't fall from heaven in these days, dollars are just as necessary for him as for 'H'. If 'H' is one of those lucky mortals who have private fortunes of their own, he might at least be a little more charitable in criticising his less fortunate ministerial fellow men who, as a rule, have no private incomes to fall back upon.

One cannot help imagining that "H" is one of those bitterest of all sectarians who are always careful to impress upon you that they "belong to no sect", and whose sole and selfappointed mission in the world appears to be the crying down, not only of every existing church organization, but of everyone who will not say "amen" to their own narrowminded and uncharitable distortions of Christianity.

I am, Dear Sir,
Your obedient servant,
Fairplay.

VISIT TO THE AMERICAN SQUADRON.

Mr. Editor,

I should be much obliged if you would kindly intimate to your readers that, with the view to giving the public an opportunity of visiting the North American squadron now at Ensenada, the Ensenada Railway Company has arranged for the issue of special cheap daily excursion tickets from to-morrow (Wednesday) until Sunday next inclusive. The tickets will be issued by trains leaving Central Station at 6.50 a.m., 8 a.m., 10 a.m. express, and 12.10 p.m., available to return by any train, and the prices are: 1st class $3, 2nd class $2.

Yours truly
A. C. Brown.

BARADERO RAFFLE.

Mr. Editor.

It would be a satisfaction to your numerous subscribers, who took tickets for the lottery of the Baradero Estancia, to know if there was a raffle and if so who was the winner. At present no one knows anything of the result.

Yours faithfully
An Old Subscriber.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The local Board of the Transandine Railway have applied to the Government for leave to open their telegraph lines.

Messrs A. C. Reuton and W. F. Christie have applied for a patent for a cattle-wagon of their invention. The new wagon has four doors or apertures, one on each side.

The plans of the proposed station at Olmos on the Santa Fé and Cordoba Great Southern have been altered.

Dr. Araoz has applied to the Government for a full report of the derailments which have occurred on the Andine Railway.

A serious accident occurred on the Pacific Railway yesterday at 7 a.m. The Pilar train went off the metals in consequence of a collision with a cow on the line, about half a mile from Bella Vista, in front of the Mattaldi distillery. The derailment occurred on the bridge across the Arroyo Conchas. The engine, the tender and two waggons were destroyed. Four passengers were injured, though not severely. The driver and fireman also received injuries. The manager immediately sent a relief train and the injured passengers were removed shortly afterwards to their houses. The traffic on the line was interrupted during the day.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The military execution at the Palermo encampment yesterday morning was the event of the day. We give full particulars of the sad scene in another column. Many morbid people went out at daybreak to see the wretched sight, but had to wait till 8 o'clock, and there was a large crowd of spectators when the fatal valley rang through the fresh morning air.

The R.M.S. Thames sails from the Outer Roads for old England to-day. Mails close at the G.P.O. at noon.

The smash on the Pacific Railway yesterday is the most interesting of our Railway Items to-day.

The enrolment of the National Guard began yesterday, but very few citizen warriors presented themselves. They have six weeks before them.

The popular manager of the Ensenada Railway has resolved to make hay while the sun shines, and will issue very cheap tickets to the U. S. Squadron and back. See his letter in another column.

We received the following yesterday:—

Dear SATNDARD,

The undersigned is requested on behalf of the ladies and gentlemen that visited the American fleet at La Plata Port to extend their sincere thanks to the commander and officers of the Chicago, Atlanta and Bennington for the kind and hospitable manner they were received on board the above vessels—not forgetting the officers of the Essex, whose reputation for gallantry is well-known amongst us.

Very truly yours
H. J. Deck.

The President of the Republic and a distinguished party will visit the U.S. squadron to-day. They go in the Murature. There will be tremendous popping of big guns and champagne corks.

The "escribano" who vanished with $8000 from one of the law courts the other day is still "non est inventus," and is likely to remain so.

The marriage of Mr. H. C. Alexander and Miss Elena Lowry was solemnized at the Quinta of Mr. and Mrs. Lowry at the Paseo del Molino on Thursday evening last in a quiet manner in the presence of the most intimate friends and relations of the bride and bridegroom. The civil marriage ceremony took place earlier in the day. The bride received a number of valuable presents. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Alexander a long life of wedded happiness.—Uruguay News.

A brother of the Calle Rivadavia gunsmith who blew his brains out ten days ago tried to do the self same act in the same room, on the same seat, on Monday, and is in a bad way.

The public are getting desperate at the filthy and ragged condition of the small notes in circulation. Many people refuse to accept the repulsive little rags. What is the Caja de Conversion, or new Bank of the Nationa about? To the rescue, gentlemen.

For topers:—"Yesterday Messrs. Phillips, Son, and Neale, of New Bond-street, concluded the sale of the late Mr. James M'Henry's art treasures and household effects at Oak Lodge, Addison-road, Kensington. A dozen and a half of Madeira, believed to have been presented by Napoleon III. to Mr. Henry, sold at 36 guineas a dozen. A few bottles of hock brought 10s. per dozen. A bedroom suite in satinwood, inlaid with tulip wood and ivory, was disposed of for £225 3s."

We had occasion yesterday to visit the English Book Exchange's new store at 333 Florida. Its formerly small business has developed in a short time into one of the best assorted bookstores in Buenos Aires. The new store is a very cheerful one, and especially in the evenings, when illuminated by electric light, it offers a very pretty sight.

Ill-luck seems to relentlessly pursue the Argentine Great Western Railway. Just as it has completed altering its locomotives to burn petroleum instead of coal, the precious wells of the Mendoza Petroleum Company, from which each stupendous things were expected, give out, and there is no more oil to be had. The London shareholders will groan and wring their hands at this fresh and quite unexpected contretemps, at which we're as sorry as could reasonably be expected.

Our esteemed Spanish colleague suggests that the erection of a statue of Columbus in one of the Plazas of this city, by public subscription, would be an appropriate way to honour the fourth centenary of the discovery of America. We second the motion, provided the speeches on the great occasion be short.

Our financial Cato is not gone yet, but he's going. So soon as he completes the Memoria of his department, he will retire into private life and resume the literary labours he should never have abandoned for the most thorny post in the Cabinet.

The Ensenada Railway shareholders should present Admiral Walker with something nice as a token of their gratitude, as he has put money in their purses. The rush to see his fine squadron is tremendous. On Sunday and Monday alone 3000 people went to La Plata to look at Uncle Sammy's ships, and 2500 of them went by rail. The flag-ship, Chicago, was the chief attraction, enhanced by a tip-top lunch on board for the invited guests, but many of the uninvited also got a hospitable bite at the good things. President Pellegrini did not visit the squadron yesterday as intended, but will to-day, accompanied by the U. S. Minister and other distinguished people.

Those who prefer dancing to dining in honour of St. Patrick will see in our advertizement columns all about the Terpsychorean arrangements for celebrating old Ireland's National Day.

An English ship, supposed to be the Crown of Italy, has been wrecked on States Island. No particulars as yet to hand, except that 35 of the crew (probably the whole) have been saved.

The City Fathers met on Monday and discussed sundry topics—paving stones—"pesos", the Western Railway, pigeon shooting and sundries, with a secret sitting for "llapa". It was all so deeply interesting that the ediles did not break up for dinner till 7 p. m.

Cardinal Manning's will bears eloquent testimony to his life of charity. He seems to have left scarcely anything. A hundred pounds in Consols, six shillings and sixpence to his credit with his publishers, and thirty one shillings and sixpence in a purse, represented his worldly wealth. The Cardinal certainly fulfilled the Christian theory of life to the letter.

Forty "mayorales" of the Anglo Argentine Tramway have been dismissed for the new dodge of receiving back from passengers the tickets sold them, when they alight before an Inspector appears. The public, more than the "mayorales," are responsible for this new way of defrauding the companies.

The public here are as little fastidious as the Parisians in the way of game, and eat it in and out of season (oftner out than in.) Although the close season for partridge is not nearly at an end, the birds are already to be seen in some of the markets, and in hawkers' baskets. Faugh!

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool. The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Tuesday, March 15.

The news of dissensions among the members of the Caja de Conversion and the extraordinary delay in appointing a successor to Finance Minister Lopez produced an unfavorable impression on 'Change to-day. Although the greatest reserve is maintained with regard to yesterday's sitting of the Board of the Caja de Conversion, it is said that Messrs. Martinez, Chas and Arcos agree at variance with Messrs. Frias and Cuyar; the latter gentlemen are members of the Board and at the same time 'Sindicos' for the National Bank and Banco de la Nacion Argentina respectively. The question at issue, it may be assumed on plausible grounds, affects the supervision that these two gentlemen are entitled to exercise in both those banking establishments, and it appears conclusive that that supervision is the apple of discord in the Board of the Caja de Conversion. We may add that, from some cause or other, the market is inclined to attach very great importance to any crisis in the Board of the Caja, more so even than to a Cabinet crisis; ever since the closing of the State Banks and the issue of the Patriotic Loan there is a morbid feeling in this regard.

With regard to the resignation of Dr. V. F. Lopez, the market harbors many misgivings. It is now quite plain that the President has not thought fit to elect a successor for the Financial portfolio, and that he may prevail on Dr. Lopez to continue in office for some time longer. The papers now announce that the resignation will stand over until Dr. Lopez finishes his 'Memoria,' or Blue-book; this may mean weeks or months. The market is much disgusted at these delays, and begins to look upon the resignation of Dr. Lopez and the supposed Cabinet crisis as moonshine. An evening contemporary states that Don Francisco Uriburu, Dr. Marcos Avellaneda, and Dr. E. Basavilbaso have not the remotest chance of succeeding Dr. Lopez; in other words, Dr. Lopez has been prevailed upon to continue in office, and the opposition of his colleagues in the Cabinet has been overcome by some concessions of the President. The whole affair looks undignified, and we wonder that the President has not solved the difficulty with his traditional energy; he must have a great regard for the venerable Minister, who has been threatening to resign for months past and yet cares not to come up to the scratch.

The gold market necessarily reflected the unfavourable impression in a steady rise in the price of ounces. The rise did not amount to much, but the feeling all morning was very firm. Twenty thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring: the price opened at $55.90, rose to $56.10, and closed hard at $56, say 244½ premium. Sovereigns opened at $17.07 and closed at $17.35, say 244½ premium. The speculation was weak yesterday: it was strong to-day, and the only explanation of the sudden change in the market is the unexpected difficulty in the Caja de Conversion and the dilly-dallying in finding somebody to replace the veteran Finance Minister.

Patriotic Bonds ruled dull and weak; they closed at 60.20. In connection with this stock, the public is wondering when the Government will open the subscription lists to the capital of the new bank: all ask if the Special Committee are still busily engaged in drawing up the precious internal regulations of the Bank, that specious pretext in putting off the subscription since last December. How is it that the Board of the Bank do not take some steps in this transcendental matter?

National Bank shares changed hands this morning at 20, a quotation that looks very low indeed when we consider that the holders can obtain one Patriotic Bond worth $60.20 for two shares of the National Bank; there must be something in the "coulisses" of this exchange of shares for bonds to account for the very low quotation of National Bank Shares at this juncture.

Shares of the Spanish Bank rose to 83 firm to-day; this new bank is doing a large business now, and its splendid hall in the Calle Reconquista, on Kraft's old site, is daily crowded. Its banking neighbor at the front corner is also doing a very large business, and its precincts are too small already for the customers that crowd at the counters.

Credito Real stock was chalked up this morning at 24. Catalinas looked much firmer at 7.50. The Obligaciones of the unfortunate Banco Constructor de La Plta put in an appearance at 80 cents each.

National Cedulas A gold are being daily thrown on the market since the end of last week. In spite of the unusual supply the price keeps steady at 30 to 284. Small amounts fetch the former price; large amounts must be sacrificed at 14 point lower. Up to the present neither the Government nor the Board of the Bank has taken any steps to convert the stock at the option of holders, or of paying the service in National Bonds; it is high time that something should be done in the matter, as the October coupons are still unpaid. National paper Cedulas E, C and D are in steady demand at prices above 70.

La Plata Cedulas looked weaker all round this morning.

The exchange market was dull; if anything, there was a shade of weakness in the rates which we quoted yesterday. Discounts continued difficult; small bills at short dates are taken up by several private banks, but the market at large complains of scarcity of paper money.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

South American Ounces—
For cash.... 19,529 at 55.90-56-55.90-56-56.10-56

Sovereigns—
For cash.... £1100 at 17.37-36-35-37-38-35

Patriotic Bonds—
For cash.. 44,400 at 60.30-

The cheques of the Provincial Bank are again weak; they closed to-day at 45% discounts. Those of the National Bank and English Bank were done at 30% discount. The Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were quoted at 11½.

Advices from Arrecifes report a flourishing state of affairs in that district. Cattle and sheep are fat and farmers look forward to a mild winter, as the grasses are growing fast. Flocks of sheep have changed hands in the district at $3.25 to $4 per head. A small point of 20 steers was sold last week at $110% per head, picked out for export. Maize is quoted at 4¼ to to $5 per 110 kilos. A large parcel of wool has been sold at $6.70 per 10 kilos in the estancia "Galpon."

Advices from Bahia Blanca announce that the warehouse at the port there, only recently finished, is filling up fast with wheat awaiting vessels for shipment. Another large wheat shed will be erected immediately near the Southern Railway station at the port. The splendid harvest of all the Curumalan colonies has given a great impetus to agriculture in the vicinity of Bahia Blanca. Wool, meantime, is arriving very slowly from the neighboring estancias. Estancieros do not care to sell and the barraqueros are not eager to buy; thus the wool business is at a stand-still. Another item of interest in Bahia Blanca is an outbreak of influenza.

Deputy Games has applied to the Minister of Public Works in La Plata for permission to erect and work a large flour-mill on the banks of the Sauce Chico, about one league distant from the Southern Railway Station Tornquist. Mr. Games intends erecting the mill on the Austro-Hungarian system, and spending on the construction £20,000; all the plans have been drawn up, the machinery has already been ordered in Europe, and the foundation of the new mill will be laid in May. The mill, we may add, will stand in the centre of the fine nine-league colony of Don Ernesto Tornquist, and quite close to the colonies of Messrs. Games and Milani, who have invested a large amount of capital in colonizing their properties.

The Rio de la Plata distillery in Ensenada has begun work again and is turning out large quantities of alcohol by a new process.

There was a rumor in the hall this afternoon that the wool news from Europe was slightly better, giving some hopes of an improvement in the manufacturing districts. The sales of wool in the plazas this morning did not amount to much; the majority of buyers are out of the market.

The Diario states that the head-house of the English Bank of the River Plate in London will soon send out £140,000 to close the liquidation of the branch here before the end of the term—one year—allowed by the Judge. Should the Bank at the end of the term not be in a position to pay all outstandings, the Judge must declare the concern bankrupt.

Most unexpected news was wired across from Montevideo this afternoon. It would appear that the arrival of Messrs. E. Casey and James Oliver has produced a change in the financial spirit of the Government. Several messages were received to-day stating that the Government has resolved to make several sweeping changes in the financial bills before the Chambers. The financial muddle across the water is greater than ever. Mr. Edward Casey held a lengthy interview with President Herrera yesterday.

33 Rambouillet rams at an average of $206 per head.
88 mestizo Lincoln rams at an average of 80 dollars per head.
2 Negrotto rams at $220.
6 Durham bulls at an average of $488 each.

The total sales amounted to $19,310 m/n. The R. M. S. Thames will leave from the outer roads to-morrow for Europe; as she was and is in quarantine she could not enter the La Plata port. Her passengers will be out of quarantine to-morrow.

According to our colleague El Diario, the following is a statement of the amounts of money lent out by the branch of the National Bank in Corrientes, "whilst in liquidation," to "persons unknown:—(The signatures of the first six in the table at foot were not even registered:—

The Uruguayan Courts have ordered the masters of the private vessels that loaded guano in the South of this republic without Government permits to hand over their vessels and cargoes to the authorities in Buenos Ayres.

The meeting of the shareholders of the Banco Comercial was a very stormy affair yesterday. About fifty shareholders were present; somebody raised an objection, maintaining that the meteing could not be held, in view of certain deficiencies in the publication of notices to the shareholders. It appears that the charter of the Bank orders the notice to be published in four newspapers; out of motives of economy, no doubt, in view of the crisis, the Board published the notice in two papers only. It was urged, on this argument, that the meeting could not be held. A warm discussion followed and the Chairman could not keep order. The Board then met privately and decided that the meeting was at an end. This announcement raised the whirlwind, and walking-sticks and hats were seen flying through the air. We hear that nobody was seriously hurt.

The gold market ruled very dull but very steady at the second ring. Such was the dead-lock in gold at one moment that all the brokers adjourned to the stock and share ring to dabble in Catalinas. Seven thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow at $56.10 and 56 dollars closing rate, same as in the morning. Eight hundred sovereigns were sold at 17.33 dollars to 17.48 dollars.

Nearly four thousand Catalinas shares were chalked on the black-board, but the bulk of operations looked suspicious; they opened at 7.40, fell to 7.20, and closed at 7.40. A few National Bank shares changed hands at 20¼, an advance of ¼. One hundred shares of the Banco Nuevo Italiano were sold at 40 paper. Over seventy thousand National gold Cedulas A were thrown on the ring and sold at 28¼ gold. National Cedulas B were firm at 95. National D closed at 70. La Plata Cedulas A were sold for to-morrow at 30.60; other series remained more or less stationary at the morning rates.

The National Government issued a decree to-day with instructions to the Argentine Financial Commissioner Dr. Victorino de la Plaza to appoint in England a capable engineer to inspect all the materials sent out to the Plate for the City Improvement Works of this city. The expense of this inspection must be met by the contractors. Furthermore, the Government is to be at liberty to refuse the materials on their arrival here should the engineer of the Committee of the City Improvement Works consider the materials defective.

The Minister of the Interior issued a decree to-day ordering the Chief of the Land and Colonies Office to strictly observe the stipulations of decree of 1st last February and not to heed any writ or demand of the Courts of this capital that may hinder or tend to delay in any way the delivery of the respective certificates to those soldiers who are entitled to the land premiums granted by law No. 1628. This decree evidently does not beg the question.

Mr. Louis de Candia took leave of his numerous friends to-day. He returns to England to-morrow in the Thames' after having successfully started the La Plata Coal Depot. We wish him a pleasant trip and hope to see him back in the Plate soon.

The returns of the Custom House to-day amounted to

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 15 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

CANNON'S Sheep Dip

which obtained the only Prize medal at the Exhibition in Edinburgh 1890, and the eulogiums of all the Agricultural Press at the Royal Agricultural Show at Doncaster in 1891, where were exhibited Skins dressed with Cannon's Dip and those undressed showing a difference in value of over 25/ per dozen in favor of Cannon's Fluid. These Skins will be exhibited at the Feria of the Sociedad Rural at Dolores, Chascomus, Balcarce, Azul etc.

This Dip has the following advantages:—It never stains the wool, but augments the growth and ensures the highest value in the market. It is easy to use, being readily soluble in cold water, and hand curing is rarely required after.
